St. James's, December 5.

THIS Day the Reverend Dr. Chapman, Maſter of St. Mary Magdalen College, Vice-Chancellor of the Univerſity of Cambridge, and his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, High Steward of the ſaid Univerſity, with ſeveral Heads of Houſes, Doctors of the ſeveral Faculties, Maſters of Arts, and other Members of that learned Body, waited on his Majeſty in their Formalities, with the following Addreſs, dated the Twenty-ninth Day of November laſt.

The humble Addreſs of the Chancellor, Maſters and Scholars of the Univerſity of Cambridge.

May it pleaſe your moſt Sacred Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Maſters and Scholars of your Univerſity of Cambridge, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne, with our moſt ſincere and unfeigned Congratulations on your Majeſty's ſafe and happy Return to your Britiſh Dominions.

Your Majeſty's conſtant and unwearied Endeavours to promote the Happineſs and Proſperity of your People, your ſteady and invariable Attachment to their true Rights and Intereſts, and the proper and effectual Means you employed in their Vindication and Defence, in the Courſe of the juſt and neceſſary War in which your Majeſty was lately engaged, always afforded us the moſt rational and well-grounded Aſſurances that they would at length be crowned with the deſired Succeſs: And with Hearts full of Gratitude we now adore the Sovereign Diſpoſer of all Events, who has accordingly made your Majeſty the glorious Inſtrument of ſettling the Ballance of Europe upon a firm and laſting Foundation, and of reſtoring to theſe Nations in particular the great and invaluable Bleſſings of a ſafe and honourable Peace.

As your Majeſty's tender and paternal Concern for the commercial Rights of your Subjects, your ſtrict and religious Obſervation of the Faith of Treaties, and a juſt Senſe that the Safety and Independence of theſe Kingdoms is inſeparably interwoven with that of their antient and natural Allies, were the wiſe and juſt Motives that induced your Majeſty to try the Event of War; ſo they ſeem, in a particular Manner, to have directed your Majeſty's Conduct, in effecting the great Work of Peace: Inſomuch that your Majeſty's People have now the ſingular Happineſs of experiencing the ſtricteſt Attention to the Intereſt of theſe Nations, rendered compatible with a due Regard for thoſe of your Confederates and the common Cauſe.

Fully ſenſible ourſelves, that the Preſervation of our religious and civil Liberties is inſeparably connected with the Stability of your Majeſty's Throne, we have uſed our conſtant Endeavours to inſtil into all thoſe who are committed to our Care, a due Reverence for your Majeſty's Government, and a full Conviction of the Juſtice of thoſe Principles upon which it is eſtabliſhed; and to theſe, we ſhall always think it our indiſpenſable Duty, to add our hearty and moſt fervent Prayers, that your Majeſty's Reign over us may be long and happy; no more diſturbed by Foreign Wars or Domeſtick Inſurrections, but that all your Majeſty's Subjects, who cannot but feel, may have the Gratitude alſo to acknowledge the many and great Bleſſings they enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and equal Adminiſtration.

Given under our Common Seal the Twenty Ninth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty eight.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return this moſt gracious Anſwer.

I Thank you very heartily for this Dutiful Addreſs. The Zeal, Loyalty, and Affection, of my Univerſity of Cambridge, have eminently diſtinguiſhed themſelves upon all Occaſions, and juſtly intitle them to my particular Favour and Protection.

Hague, November 6, N. S. We were informed laſt Wedneſday Evening from Helvoetſluys, that a Ship was arrived that Day in the Maeſe, the Captain of which reported, that the Day before he had ſeen the King's Yatcht, and other Veſſels that attended upon his Majeſty, within a few Miles of the Kentiſh Shore, and that he did not queſtion, but his Majeſty landed that ſame Evening at Margate. We are the more impatient to receive the Confirmation of this good News, as our Uneaſineſs about his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon has been raiſed to the higheſt Degree,

Degree, on Account of the violent Storm of Wind that blew upon this Coaſt all that Night and the Day following. The Tranſports that ſailed from Helvoetſluys, at the ſame Time as his Majeſty, were all obliged to put back the next Day. Upon a Motion made laſt Saturday by the Deputies of the Province of Holland, in the Aſſembly of the States General, their High Mightineſſes immediately took a Reſolution to confer on the Prince of Orange, and his Heirs Male and Female, the Dignity of Hereditary Stadtholder and Captain General of Brabant, Flanders, and the Upper Quarter of Guelderland, with the ſame Power and Prerogatives as have been given to his Serene Highneſs as Stadtholder of the Seven United Provinces, and with a Salary of 25,000 Florins per Annum. And in Conſequence of this Reſolution, Deputies are appointed to preſent to the Prince the Diploma of this new Dignity, which was never enjoy'd by any of his Highneſs's Predeceſſors. The Directors and principal Proprietors of the India Company, of the Chamber of Amſterdam, have reſolved to appoint the Prince of Orange Director and Governor General of the Dutch Poſſeſſions in the Indies, as far as it depends on that Chamber; but this Affair cannot be entirely terminated, till a General Court of Directors and Proprietors is held, which has been appointed for the 12th Inſtant at Amſterdam. The Prince Stadtholder has appointed a new Council of War to examine into the Conduct of General Cronſtrom during the Siege of Bergen-op zoom; General Pretorius is named Preſident of this Council, which is to conſiſt beſides, of three other Generals, viz. Vander-Duyn, d'Aylva, and Burmania; and of five Lieutenant Generals, viz. Glabbeeck, Van Leyden, Kinſchot, Villegas, and Glinſtra. General d'Aylva took the Oaths two Days ago as Governor of Maeſtricht; and it is currently reported, that the Governments of Tournay, Namur, and Bergen-op-zoom, are to be diſpoſed of in Favour of the Prince of Heſſe Philipſthal, General Schwartzenburg, and General Pretorius. Count Bentinck returned three Days ago to Aix la Chapelle.

Hague, Dec. 10, N. S. We were this Morning informed from England, that his Majeſty arrived at St. James's in perfect Health on Wedneſday laſt. This Event has given us the more Satisfaction, as from the Day of his Majeſty's Landing, the Wind has continued very ſtormy, and directly contrary for England. His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland arrived here this Day about Noon in perfect Health. Beſides the Reſolution of the States General to make the Prince of Orange Hereditary Stadtholder and Captain General of Brabant, Flanders, and the Upper Quarter of Guelderland, their High Mightineſſes have taken another Reſolution, by which they authorize the Prince, as far as depends on them, to diſpoſe proviſionally, and for the firſt Time only, of all the Employments in the Towns of Maeſtricht and Bergen-op-Zoom, and other Towns and Diſtricts of Flanders and Brabant, and to make ſuch Regulations, with regard to the Regencies, and the Civil, Military, and Eccleſiaſtical Affairs of thoſe Places, as his Serene Highneſs ſhall think moſt conducive to their future Security and Advantage. The Heſſian Troops began laſt Saturday their March homewards. And Yeſterday the Prince Stadtholder received Advice from Bergen-op-Zoom, that the French Troops had evacuated that Fortreſs on Saturday laſt, the 7th Inſtant N. S. and had delivered up to the Commanding Officer of the Dutch Troops 70 odd Pieces of Braſs Cannon, and about a Dozen Mortars and Haubitzers, beſides ſome Pieces of Iron Ordnance. To-morrow is the Day appointed for the Evacution of Antwerp, and of all the Forts upon the Scheld. The Prince Stadtholder intends to ſet out for Frieſland towards the latter End of this Week. The Troops, which were lately ſent to Leyden, ſtill continue there; and a few Days ago four conſiderable Burghers of that Town, who had been chiefly concern'd in the late Diſturbances, were brought Priſoners to the Hague, and committed to the Common Goal; and it is generally thought, that the Event of this Affair will prove very fatal to them.

Whitehall, Sept. 15, 1748.

Whereas it has been repreſented to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, that, on the 6th of this Inſtant September, one Hugh Coffy was committed to Newgate, on ſtrong Suſpicion of Filing and Diminiſhing Portugal Gold Pieces: And as there is the ſtrongeſt Reaſon to believe, that the ſaid Coffy, and ſeveral others (who ſince the ſaid Coffy's Commitment have abſconded) have been concerned in Filing the Current Coin of this Kingdom called Guineas, and in diſperſing the ſame: Their Excellencies are pleaſed to promiſe His Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon to any of the Perſons concerned with the ſaid Coffy as aforeſaid, upon his or her diſcovering one or more of his or her Accomplices; as likewiſe a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward allowed by Act of Parliament, to any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall apprehend and take any Perſon or Perſons concerned in Filing and Diminiſhing the ſaid Current Coin of this Kingdom, ſo as he, ſhe or they may be convicted of the ſame.
